Who We Are:

The BBQ Brethren is the largest BBQ Federation in North America, with over 22,000 members internationally, yet based out of Smithtown, Long Island. Known as the Heart of Long Island BBQ, The BBQ Brethren Events have driven a huge increase in interest by the general public in the world of Competition BBQ. This, in addition to the increased attention brought forth by network and cable television shows has driven steady growth to our BBQ events over the years. NY State alone now has 13 Sanctioned BBQ Contests, with 3 on Long Island. Our Goal is to grow to 5 in 2012, limited only by team saturation in the area. We have been featured several times in NY Newsday, Chicago Tribune, Los Angeles Times and have reached out on network TV to as far as the a popular Morning show, 'Good Morning Japan', to bring Traditional American BBQ to Japanese Culture.

Type of Event

A 2 day BBQ Competition/Car show held at The Maples In Manorville. We will have live Entertainment, cooking demos, food vendors and a Custom Car Show. The Smokin' at The Maples BBQ Contest is a NYS BBQ Championship, sanctioned by the Kansas City BBQ Society, The New England BBQ society, The BBQ Brethren Competition BBQ Federation and endorsed by the Governors office in Albany with a signed proclamation by Governor Cuomo. We hope to bring in the local residents for participation in classes, demonstrations, and even to compete in one of our championship cook-offs.

Fundraising

*BBQ Brethren Events are always fundraisers. Previous events were to benefit organizations such as Breast Cancer Help, Cancer Sucks, P.A.L Special Needs Children and we ALWAYS include Island Harvest in our events in to feed those in need. This year's event will benefit the Suffolk County Chapter of the Make-A-Wish foundation. All net proceeds from public admission and the car show will benefit Make-A-Wish.

What's this all about?:

The Battle of the BBQ Brethren Championship BBQ Contest series are identical to the ones seen on the TV Series BBQ Pitmasters, Best in Smoke, American Festivals and many others. Saturday, there will be a one day grilling challenge for a $1500 prize pool and $500 winner take all grilling shootout. Sundays KCBS BBQ Championship should have a prize pool over $8000 depending on the number of teams to enter. Previous contests attracted from 35-50 teams from various states as far as California, Missouri, The Carolinas and Florida with local participation of up to 15000 people. The contest is a qualifier for the United States largest invitational championships as well as a member of the Empire State BBQ Championship. The winners of this KCBS Sanctioned NY State BBQ Championship will advance to the American Royal Nationals in Kansas City Missouri and The Jack Daniels Worlds Championship in Lynchburg Tennessee.
